

Rosenethe Singers, Dunblane

Rosenethe Singers, Dunblane, is looking to appoint a new Musical Director to take up post in March 2026, or sooner if possible.

Rosenethe Singers is a friendly SATB choir of circa 40 men and women all of whom read music. Entry is by audition and rehearsals take place on Wednesday evenings from 7.30 to 9.30pm during the autumn and spring terms.

Our repertoire is largely comprised of classical pieces with concerts typically being performed at the Church of the Holy Rude in Stirling at weekends. Recent performances have included Rachmaninov All Night Vigil, Purcell Dido and Aeneas and JS Bach Mass in B minor.

If you have experience of conducting classical choral music and are looking for a friendly choir who wish to develop their choral skills further then we would be delighted to hear from you.

A full job description, including terms and conditions, is available on the choir's website: <https://www.rosenethesingers.co.uk>.

The closing date for applications is Wednesday 4th February with interview and audition taking place on a date to be confirmed.

Please send a brief letter of application together with a CV outlining your musical and conducting experience to Simon Pengelley, Chair of the Rosenethe Singers via email to: info@rosenethesingers.co.uk.
